

Shadows

Another wasted day it seems
A tragedy, a tragedy
Watching all my fading dreams
Escaping me, escaping me

And all that I wanted was someone to tell me it's okay
But I waited oh I waited

When my shadow's all that you see
When my shadow's bigger than me
Tell me where did I go so wrong

Another day a week a year
So rapidly, rapidly
Falling closer to your fear
Like gravity, gravity

And all that you want is someone to tell you it's okay
So I'll say it, oh I'll say it

When my shadow's all that you see
When my shadow's bigger than me
Tell me where did I go so wrong

Too long the darkest days have covered me
This shadow isn't what I wanna be
So I'll face the sun and make it follow me

When my shadow's all that you see
When my shadow's bigger than me
Tell me where did I go so wrong
