

Trouble Child

I never saw myself divided, but here I am
Standing shattered, all alone
You left me picking up the pieces
But I don't know how to do this on my own

You never heard me crying
And so I screamed

All of the words I craved
I never heard you say
I had to say them to myself
Time and again I tried
To walk with you by my side
But you just dragged me down
Cause you never heard my crying
And so I screamed
This is your trouble child

You never wanted me to make it, but here I am
Further than you thought I'd be
And every dream you tried to break it, but now I know
Where I end up is up to me.

You never heard me crying
And so I screamed

All of the words I craved
I never heard you say
I had to say them to myself
Time and again I tried
To walk with you by my side
But you just dragged me down
Cause you never heard my crying
And so I screamed
This is your trouble child

If you are someone who's dying like me
Trying to hide all the places you bleed
If you were thinking it's time to let go
Desperately begging for someone to know
If you are someone who's kinda like me
Desperately begging for someone to lead
I am here waiting and want you to know
That I hear you screaming and you're not alone

All of the words I craved
I never heard you say
I had to say them to myself
Time and again I tried
To walk with you by my side
But you just dragged me down
Cause you never heard my crying
